OFFICE OF THE
UTAH STATE AUDITOR

Biography David Pulsipher, CIA, CFE
Director, Performance Audit

David Pulsipher joined the Office of the Utah State Auditor after serving in the Office of the Legislative Auditor General, as a performance audit manager for the state's department of Health, and as audit director for the state's Department of Corrections. During his career, Dave has contributed to nationally-recognized performance audits that helped to streamline inefficient operations, improve inadequate program oversight, and correct noncompliance with state statute, rules, and policies.

Dave received a Master of Business Administration degree from the University of Utah's David Eccles School of Business. Dave is a Certified Internal Auditor and Certified Fraud Examiner, has served on the boards for the local chapter of the Institute of Internal Auditors and Utah Government Auditors' Association, and currently serves on the National State Auditors' Association performance audit committee.

Dave and his family enjoy traveling, supporting University of Utah athletics, and spending hours together at youth sporting events.
