Clarification - Utah Housing Coalition States They Last Received Government Funds in 2011
Coalition Removed from the Office's February List of Delinquent Filers Among Utah's Local Government Entities

Salt Lake City, UTAH –

The Utah Housing Coalition recently sent a letter to the Office of the Utah State Auditor clarifying that their last Federal funds expired in 2011 and indicating that they do not currently meet the threshold for reporting to the Office. Therefore, the Office's recent report of delinquent filers should not have included the Coalition as responsible for a 2012 report.

The Office looks forward to the passage of House Bill 283, Nonprofit Entity Receipt of Government Money, sponsored by Representative Menlove. This bill is intended to improve communication to the Office by State Granting Agencies which will alert the Office when affected non profits change their reporting status.

A corrected list of local government entities which are delinquent in their filings as of February 25, 2014 is available on our website auditor.utah.gov and specifically at <http://auditor.utah.gov/wp-content/uploads/sites/5/2013/05/Auditor-List-of-Delinquent-Local-Govt-Entities-2-2014-Corrected-3-4-2014-Final.pdf>.

About the Office of the Utah State Auditor

The Office of the Utah State Auditor provides Utah taxpayers and government officials with an independent assessment of financial operation, statutory compliance, and performance management for state and local government.

Specific activities of the Office include performing financial audits, conducting Federal funds compliance audits, providing local government oversight, conducting agency and program performance audits, performing fraud & compliance audits, and operating the State Auditor Hotline for citizens to report suspected financial issues or improprieties. These capabilities strengthen Utah State Government and help taxpayers have confidence in the integrity of Utah's government agencies.

The Utah State Auditor is a Constitutional Officer of the State of Utah, elected directly by the state's citizens every 4 years. The role of the Utah State Auditor is authorized in Article VII, Section 15 of the Utah Constitution. Additional Information at Auditor.Utah.gov
