

OFFICE OF THE
UTAH STATE AUDITOR

Joe Christensen, CPA
Audit Director

Joe Christensen attended Brigham Young University where he graduated in December of 1983 with a Masters degree in accounting (MAcc).

In 1984, Joe joined the CPA firm of Coopers and Lybrand where he spent two years auditing clients in the banking, construction, retail, and government industries. In 1986, Joe joined the Office of the Utah State Auditor. As an Audit Director he directs financial and compliance audits of various colleges, universities, and state agencies, including the State's Comprehensive Annual Financial Report (CAFR).

Joe received his license as a CPA in 1984 and is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA) and the Utah Association of Certified Public Accountants (UACPA). He is currently serving on the various committees of the National State Auditor's Association. He also helped organize the Utah Government Auditor's Association and served on its Executive and Training Committees for many years.
