We currently have records that are responsive to your request. The records will be sent electronically upon receipt of the amount cited in the attached invoice.

In addition, a few of the requested records in possession of the Office of the State Auditor are protected records based upon Utah Code § 63G-2-305(17) and are subject to attorney-client privilege. As such, these records cannot be provided at this time.

Pursuant to Utah Code § 63G-2-401, you have the right to appeal the response to this request to the chief administrative officer, John Dougall, Utah State Auditor. Your notice of appeal must be submitted within 30 days of the above date and must include your name, mailing address, daytime telephone number, and an explanation of the relief sought. You may also include any supporting information with your notice of appeal. Your appeal may be submitted at the address listed below.

Please note that all GRAMA requests are posted on our website as a matter of office practice (with personal information, such as address, redacted). We do this to provide transparency and accountability to the public at large.

Sincerely,

Mandy Teerlink
Records Officer
