Office of the State Auditor Completes Audit of the State of Utah's 2021 Annual Comprehensive Financial Report

Issues Annual Statement of Long-Term Liabilities and Commitments

Salt Lake City, UTAH –

The State of Utah's (State) Division of Finance recently completed the Annual Comprehensive Financial Report (ACFR) for fiscal year ended on June 30, 2021. The Office of the State Auditor (Office) audited the ACFR and issued its audit opinion which is contained within the ACFR. The Office appreciates the Division of Finance's hard work and professionalism in completing the ACFR.

In addition, the Office released its annual Statement of Long-Term Liabilities and Commitments for the State of Utah. The State's constitutional debt limit as of June 30, 2021 was $ 7.47 billion. During the ordinary course of operation, the State and its various component units incur an array of debt and other long-term commitments. This report provides a simplified summary of that debt and those commitments.

As of June 30, 2021, long-term liabilities for the State's governmental activities was $3.63 billion. The State's business-type activities reported $1.29 billion in long-term liabilities, while the State's component units had $5.36 billion in long-term liabilities.

A copy of the Statement of Long-Term Liabilities and Commitments for the State of Utah can be viewed on our website at auditor.utah.gov, on the Data and Statistics page at https://auditor.utah.gov/audit_reports/data-and-statistics/, or directly at <https://auditor.utah.gov/wp-content/uploads/sites/6/2022/01/Utah-Statement-of-Liabilities-Commitments-June-30-2021.pdf>.

About the Office of the State Auditor

The Office of the State Auditor provides Utah taxpayers and government officials with an independent assessment of financial operation, statutory compliance, and performance management for state and local government.

Specific activities of the Office include performing financial audits, conducting federal funds compliance audits, providing local government oversight, conducting agency and program performance audits, performing fraud and compliance audits, and operating the State Auditor Hotline for citizens to report suspected financial issues or improprieties. These capabilities strengthen Utah State Government and help taxpayers have confidence in the integrity of Utah's government agencies.

The Office also provides interactive graphical tools to help taxpayers and policymakers gain greater insight into governmental financial activities.

The State Auditor is a Constitutional Officer of the State of Utah, elected directly by the state's citizens every 4 years. The role of the Utah State Auditor is authorized in Article VII, Section 15 of the Utah Constitution. For more information, see auditor.utah.gov.
