Please search your records from June 1, 2022 to the current date.

We currently have records responsive to your request referenced above.

Your request for a fee waiver for the compilation of the correspondence related to our review is denied in accordance with Utah Code § 63G-2-203(2). The responsive records will be sent electronically upon receipt of the amount cited in the attached invoice.

Pursuant to Utah Code § 63G-2-401, you have the right to appeal the fee waiver denial of this request to the chief administrative officer, John Dougall, Utah State Auditor. Your notice of appeal must be submitted within 30 days of the above denial date and must include your name, mailing address, daytime telephone number, and an explanation of the relief sought. You may also include any supporting information with your notice of appeal. Your appeal may be submitted at the address listed below.

Please be aware that all GRAMA requests are posted on our website as a matter of office practice (with personal information, such as personal home addresses, personal email addresses, and personal phone numbers, redacted). We do this to provide transparency and accountability to the public at large.

Sincerely,

Mandy Teerlink, Records Officer
Office of the State Auditor
