

OFFICE OF THE
STATE AUDITOR

Nora Kurzova

Assistant State Privacy Officer

Nora spent most of her career providing legal services. For ten years Nora worked at Tyco International Ltd, which she joined in 2007 as a Legal Specialist, later progressed to Legal Counsel and EMEA Compliance Counsel, and eventually became the Chief Privacy and Records Management Officer for the multinational company. Before getting fully into Privacy, Nora worked in anti-corruption and investigations. Following Tyco, Nora worked as the Head of Corporate Privacy Office for MetLife and most recently as a Global Chief Compliance Officer for Packeta Group.

Nora obtained her masters in law from the Charles University in Prague, Czech Republic, followed by a criminal law and forensic science doctoral degree from the same and an LL.M. degree in international law from University of Greenwich, UK.

Nora is a Certified Information Privacy Professional and Change Management Professional and has been a subject matter expert speaker on privacy, with special focus on deletion of personal data and privacy as a human right. Aside from her legal expertise Nora also enjoys creative writing and filmmaking.
